

What is the dog's name and breed?

Documented YES / NO

Who owns the dog?

Documented YES / NO

What are the nature of the injuries?

Documented YES / NO

What are the circumstances of the attack/incident?

Documented YES / NO

Did the Parents/Carers seek medical advice in a timely manner or was there a delay in presentation?

Documented YES / NO

Are there any babies or non-mobile children living at the same address?

Documented YES / NO

Is the child/children appropriately safeguarded? Do you need to consider a referral to FFD? If yes please send a copy of the referral to wah-tr.SafeguardingWorcsacute@nhs.net and upload a copy to CLIP/Patientfirst

Documented YES / NO

Is the dog an illegal breed? (Please see list below) & do you need to report to the Police? If yes, please record the Incident number.

Documented YES / NO

Has the dog previously shown any aggression prior to this incident?

Documented YES / NO

What action has the pet owner taken to prevent a recurrence of any attack?

Documented YES / NO

Illegal dog breeds:

Pit Bull Terrier → Japanese Tosa → Dogo Argentino → Fila Brasileiro → XL Bully dog & Crossbreeds including any of those types of dog may also be subject to the law, depending on their size and characteristics

WAHT Policy/Leaflets

WAHT Trust Policy
Injuries sustained by I

Parent Tips - Keeping Babies and Children Safe Around Dogs in the Home (Institute of Health Visiting)

The Blue Cross Be Safe with Dogs Leaflet - Guidance for Families

<https://www.pdsa.org.uk/pet-help-and-advice/looking-after-your-pet/puppies-dogs/children-and-dogs>